CHILDRENS BULLETIN In the gospel

We need food and drink to stay alive. Jesus explains that he is the bread of life. If we eat this bread we can live forever.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT Even though we are told that if we seek the Lord, we shall not want, in the second reading St Paul reminds us that, thus blessed by the Lord, the good steward should “give thanks to God the Father always and for everything in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.”

IN THE MIDDLE OF EVERYTHING:

this outstanding publication chronicles the first 50 years of St Norbert College, NOW available for $20. The 152-page, full colour book tells the story of people, young and old, who have been fully committed to the aspiration of being 'prepared for all good works' from the school's origins until the present day. Some copies now available in the Piety Stall.

“...Anyone who eats this bread will live forever...”

Your generous support for Catholic Mission's Propagation of the Faith Appeal this week-end ensures that the healing & hope-giving power of Holy Eucharist is available to all who seek it. As the 'planned-giving programme' for the rest of the world, your regular donations sustains & strengthens the pastoral work, educational work & sacramental presence of Catholic parish communities amongst the poor & oppressed peoples of developing countries world-wide.

MARK KELLY

The Eighth Habit

I have been listening to an audio book this week from Stephen Covey titled the Eighth Habit. Covey is the author of the well-known book the 7 Habits of Highly Effective People. The 8th habit is about finding your own voice and inspiring others to find theirs.

The word inspire means to breathe life into. One might say that Jesus inspires us on a regular basis. He breathes life into us so we can go out into the world and spread his word.

In his book, Covey behoves us to find our voice and inspire others to find theirs. By believing in someone and by taking time to listen to and encourage them, we can change the course of a life. We should never underestimate the power of some well-chosen, honest words of encouragement to those whose path we cross.

For some people, that may be the only time someone believes in and shows an interest in them and their life. I believe in life there are many opportunities to help others find their voice. I think it would be something Jesus would approve of. So maybe this week, keep an eye out for the opportunity to help someone find their voice. By doing so, that will help you find yours.
