READINGS	First Reading	Second Reading	Gospel
10 Feb 2019	Is 6:1-8	1Cor 15:1:11	Lk 5:1-11

CHILDRENS BULLETIN In today’s Gospel- Jesus tells Peter to put his nets out to catch some fish. Peter does as Jesus asks....

FOOD FOR THOUGHT In today’s readings, both Isaiah and Peter hear the call of God and feel themselves unworthy. But, reassured by the Lord, both answer and follow. Do I hear the Lord asking, “Whom shall I send?” Am I prepared to answer, “Here I am. Send me!?”

WITH GRATEFUL THANKS I would like to thank you for your wonderful generosity to both the Parish and to the Parish clergy over many Sundays and years. You are truly fantastic.

For those who would like to know which Church collections are used for what. The first collection (at the Preparation of the Gifts) is for the support of the priest. The Second collection – Planned Giving and Loose Money is for the support of the Parish

THE PIETY STALL has many religious gifts, cards and inexpensive reading material. Items can be ordered from catalogues which are available for your perusal.

MASS INTENTIONS We have numerous requests for Mass Intentions, particularly on Sundays. It is the duty of the Parish Priest to celebrate Mass for the people of the parish on every Sunday and Holy Day. There are certain times of the year when there seems to be “a rush” on Mass Intentions. Please feel free to ask for the Mass to be offered in plenty of time. This may mean three months notice.

Schools In

This week saw children all over this vast state return to, or in some instances, start, their school experience. We are fortunate in our parish to have two outstanding schools in St Joseph’s and St Norbert’s.

As parents, we entrust our children to teachers from a young age. Teachers become an important source of knowledge and guidance from that point on. I have always thought that teachers do an amazing job and have enormous responsibilities. To show young people the way and in particular in Catholic schools, the Catholic way, must be both an honour and a burden. So, at the start of this school year, my thoughts and prayers are with those teachers. May they provide wise counsel to those in their care.

Many of last year’s year 12 cohort will be preparing for their next journey, be it university, work or other pursuits. May they also find mentors that have their best interests at heart, and may their Catholic grounding hold them in good stead in this world of uncertainty.

I have found there are many good people in this world. Many that are prepared to help where they can. All you need do, is ask. And then the world of possibilities can open before your eyes, like a new dawn. I wish you all well for your new year. As I mentioned last week, these young people are the future of the Church
